Soulman O'Gaia is an exciting new artist from the U.K. residing on the East Coast of Australia. He's a gifted songwriter, of Jamaican decent, with an impacting singing voice and an unusual flair for audience interaction. He brings all his character and talents to bear in an impressively diverse and intoxicating blend of Soul, Rock, Gospel, and Blues.

He stomps, boogies, strums and sings with inimitable style to a euphoric close every time. 'An incredible performer with a wonderful energy' says Sandy McCutcheon from the ABC show Australia Talks back.

He recently featured alongside Australian Artists John Butler, Paul Kelly, Tex Perkins, Kasey Chambers, Pete Murray and Xavier Rudd on the Fatherhood CD and at related events and has appeared at East Coast Blues and Roots and others prestigious festivals.
